

ICKBURGH SCHOOL

Summer 1 – 2023

Headteacher's Message

Dear all

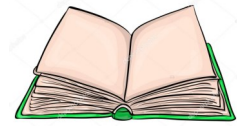

With bank holidays and strike days, it's been a bit of a different half-term! In between times, we've had Futures Events for parents of our older students, and parent workshops.

Staff members received Disability Rights training, to help us think about how we can best support our young people with recognizing and receiving all that they are entitled to in society.

Next half-term will include sports days and awards assemblies—look out for more details. Please note that we will be finishing early on 21st July, our last day of the school year.

All best wishes for the Easter break

Joe Sieber, Headteacher
